

2024-2025 Faculty Opening: THEOLOGY

Our School:

Cristo Rey Brooklyn is a Catholic high school partnering with families of all creeds to educate deserving young people from underserved communities to become men and women of faith, purpose and service. By integrating a rigorous curriculum, a unique work-study experience and the support of an inclusive school community, we enable students to succeed in college and beyond with the values essential to a fulfilling life.

It is our vision to be considered one of the best high schools in New York as measured by academic growth and achievement, graduation rates and college success. Cristo Rey Brooklyn High School alumni will be recognized as lifelong learners, inspirational community and professional leaders, and committed to a purpose beyond self.

The Position:

The Theology teacher will be assigned a maximum of five sections of courses and work alongside other Theology teachers within our school's Humanities Department.

The first day of the school year for faculty is August 26, 2024. New teachers are expected to attend a summer training in Chicago at dates to be determined. Expenses for this training are covered by the school.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree in Theology, Divinity, Pastoral Studies, or related field required
- Master's Degree in Secondary Education or Theology-related is preferred but not required
- Prior successful full-time teaching experience in grades 7-12 is strongly preferred
- Able to use technology to further student learning (i.e. Google Classroom, Zoom, PowerSchool)
- Prior experience in Cristo Rey schools, Teach for America, Alliance for Catholic Education, Urban
- Catholic Teacher Corps of Boston College, or NativityMiguel schools is a plus.

Compensation and Benefits:

Salary range is $50,000-60,000; the exact amount is commensurate with experience and benchmarked with our peer local and Cristo Rey Network schools. Comprehensive benefits are included in the overall compensation package.
